oneANOTHER

A group of people in a meeting, overlaid with a yellow filter. The image shows several individuals, including a woman in the foreground with her back to the camera, and others in the background. The overall tone is professional and collaborative.

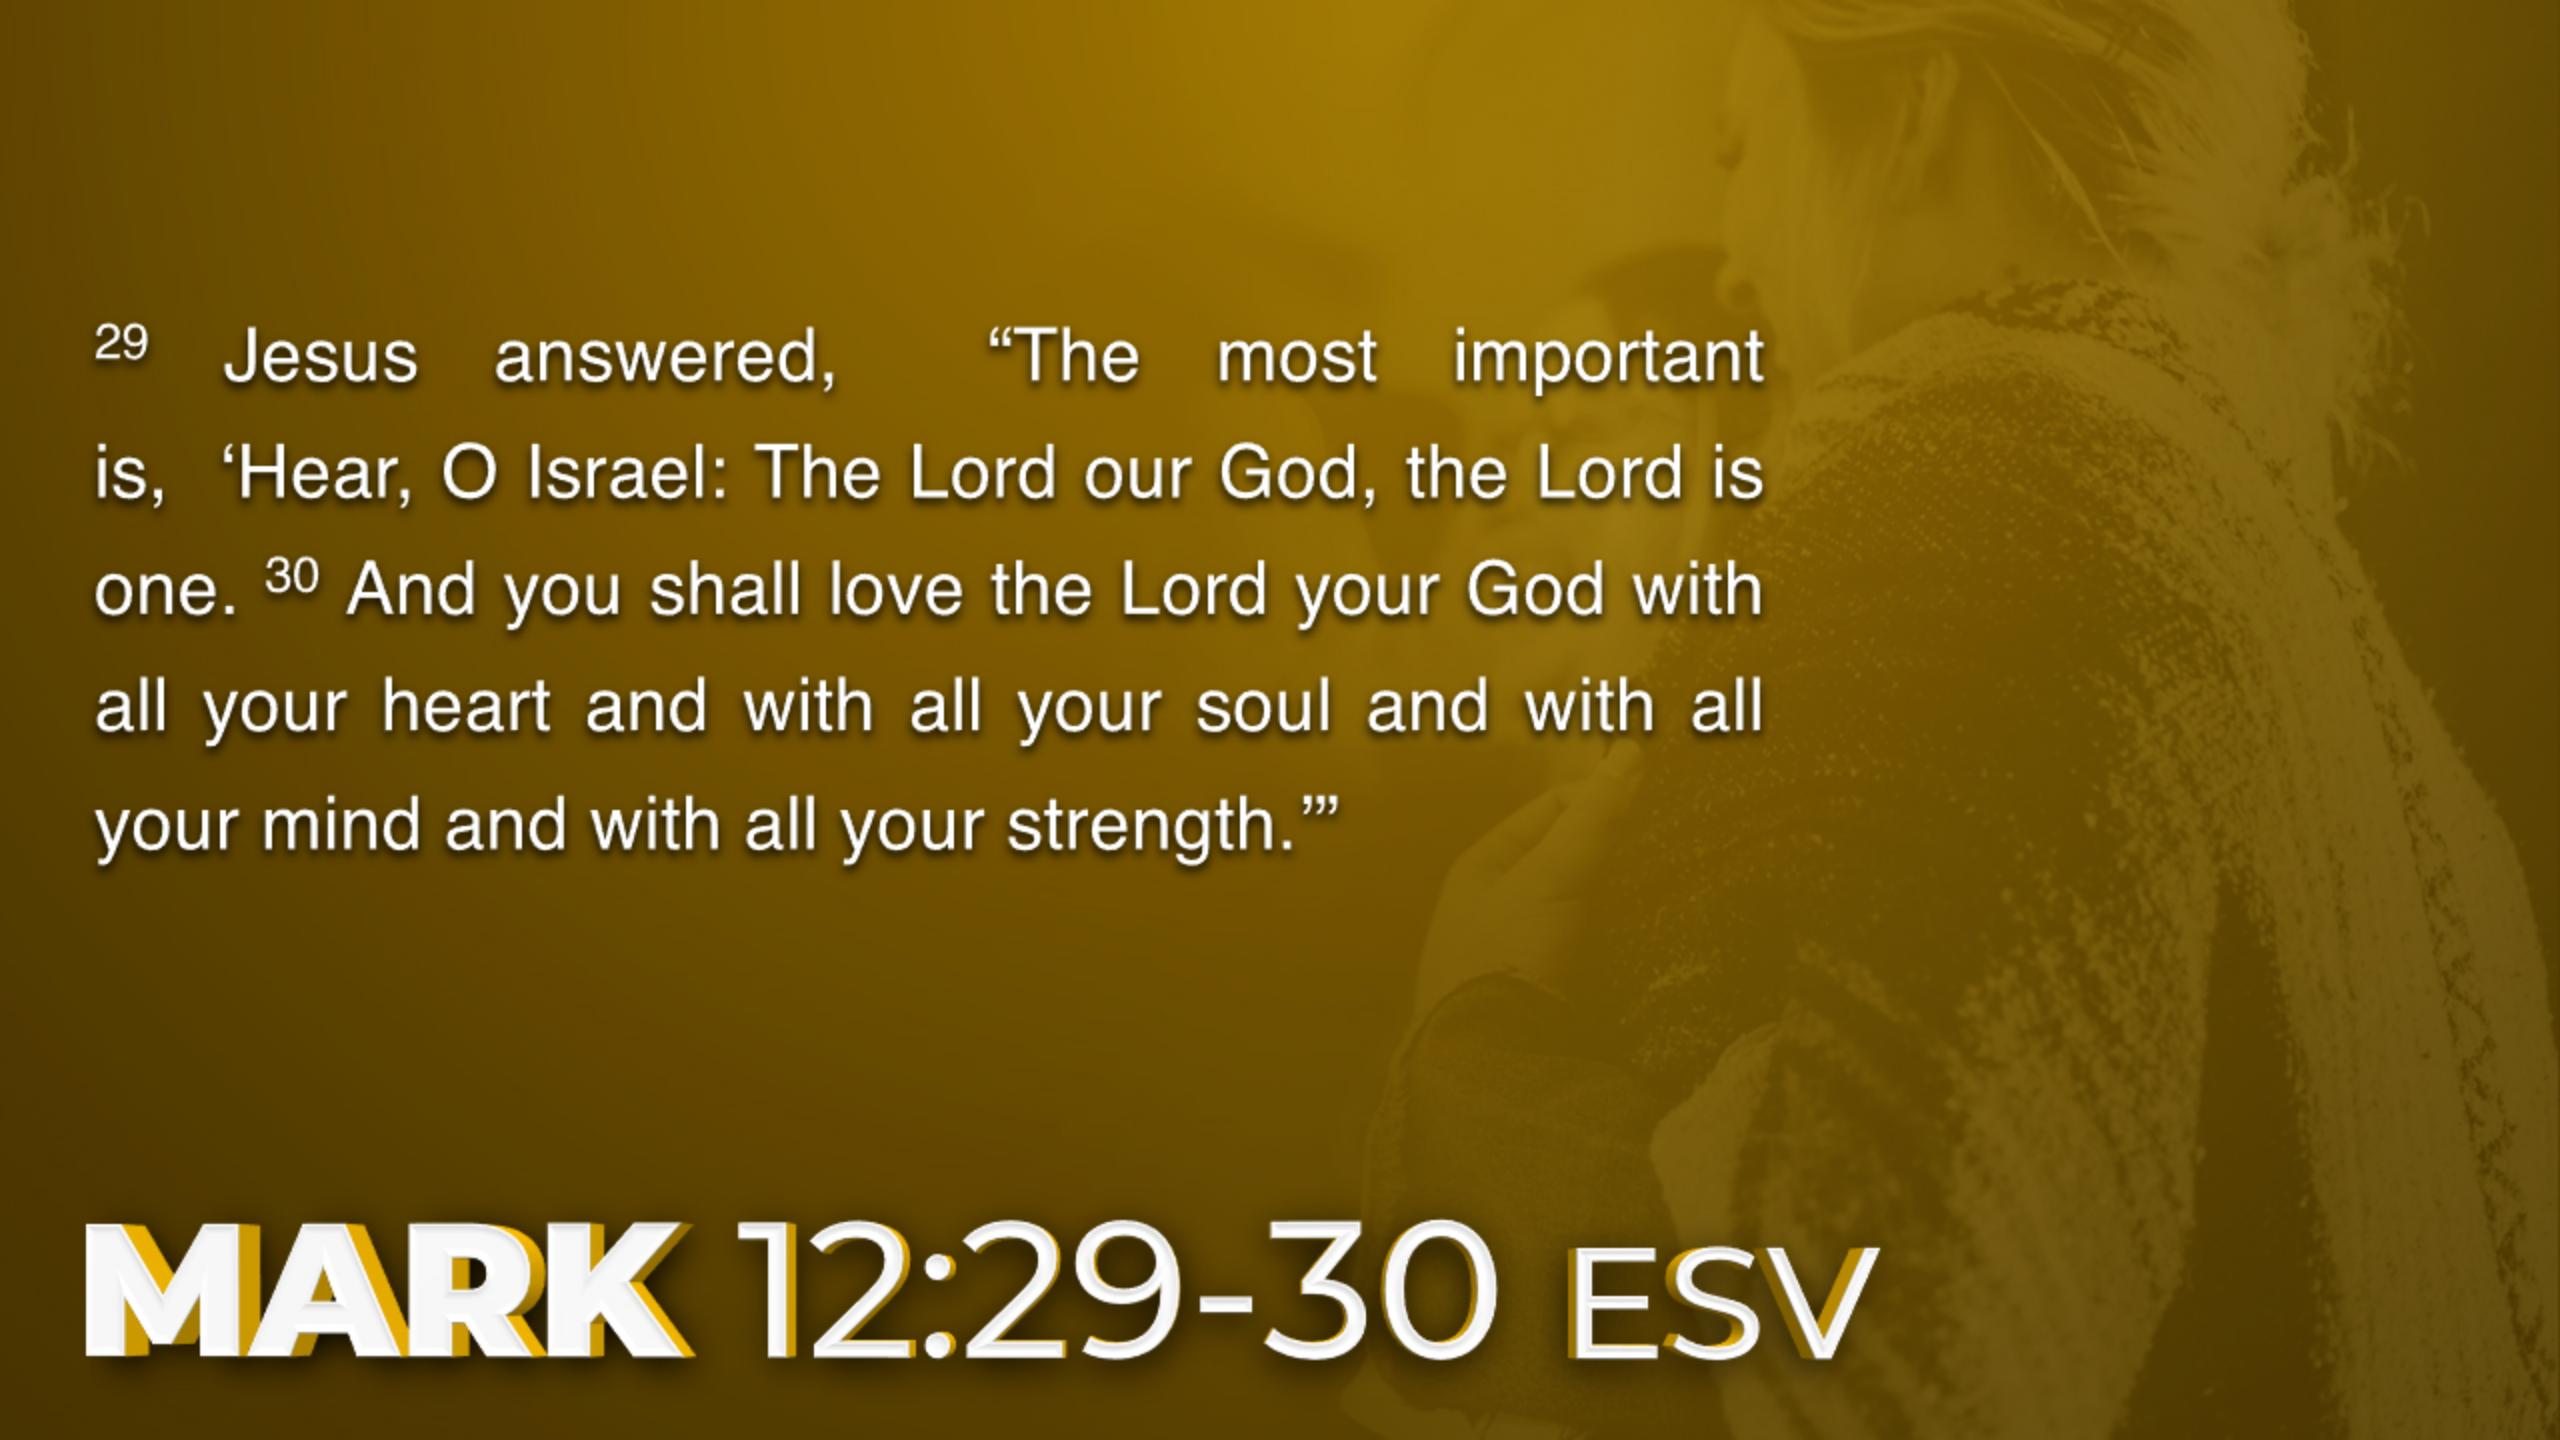

A great question with a vital answer.

<sup>28</sup> And one of the scribes came up and heard them disputing with one another, and seeing that he answered them well, asked him, “Which commandment is the most important of all?”

MARK 12:28 ESV

<sup>29</sup> Jesus answered, “The most important is, ‘Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one.’ <sup>30</sup> And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.”

MARK 12:29-30 ESV

31 “The second is this: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ There is no other commandment greater than these.”

MARK 12:31 ESV

Jesus answers the question and he does so in the context of relationship

A group of people, likely a tribe, are shown in traditional attire. The image is overlaid with a semi-transparent yellow filter. The text is centered over the image.

If you want to go fast, go alone.

If you want to go far, go together.

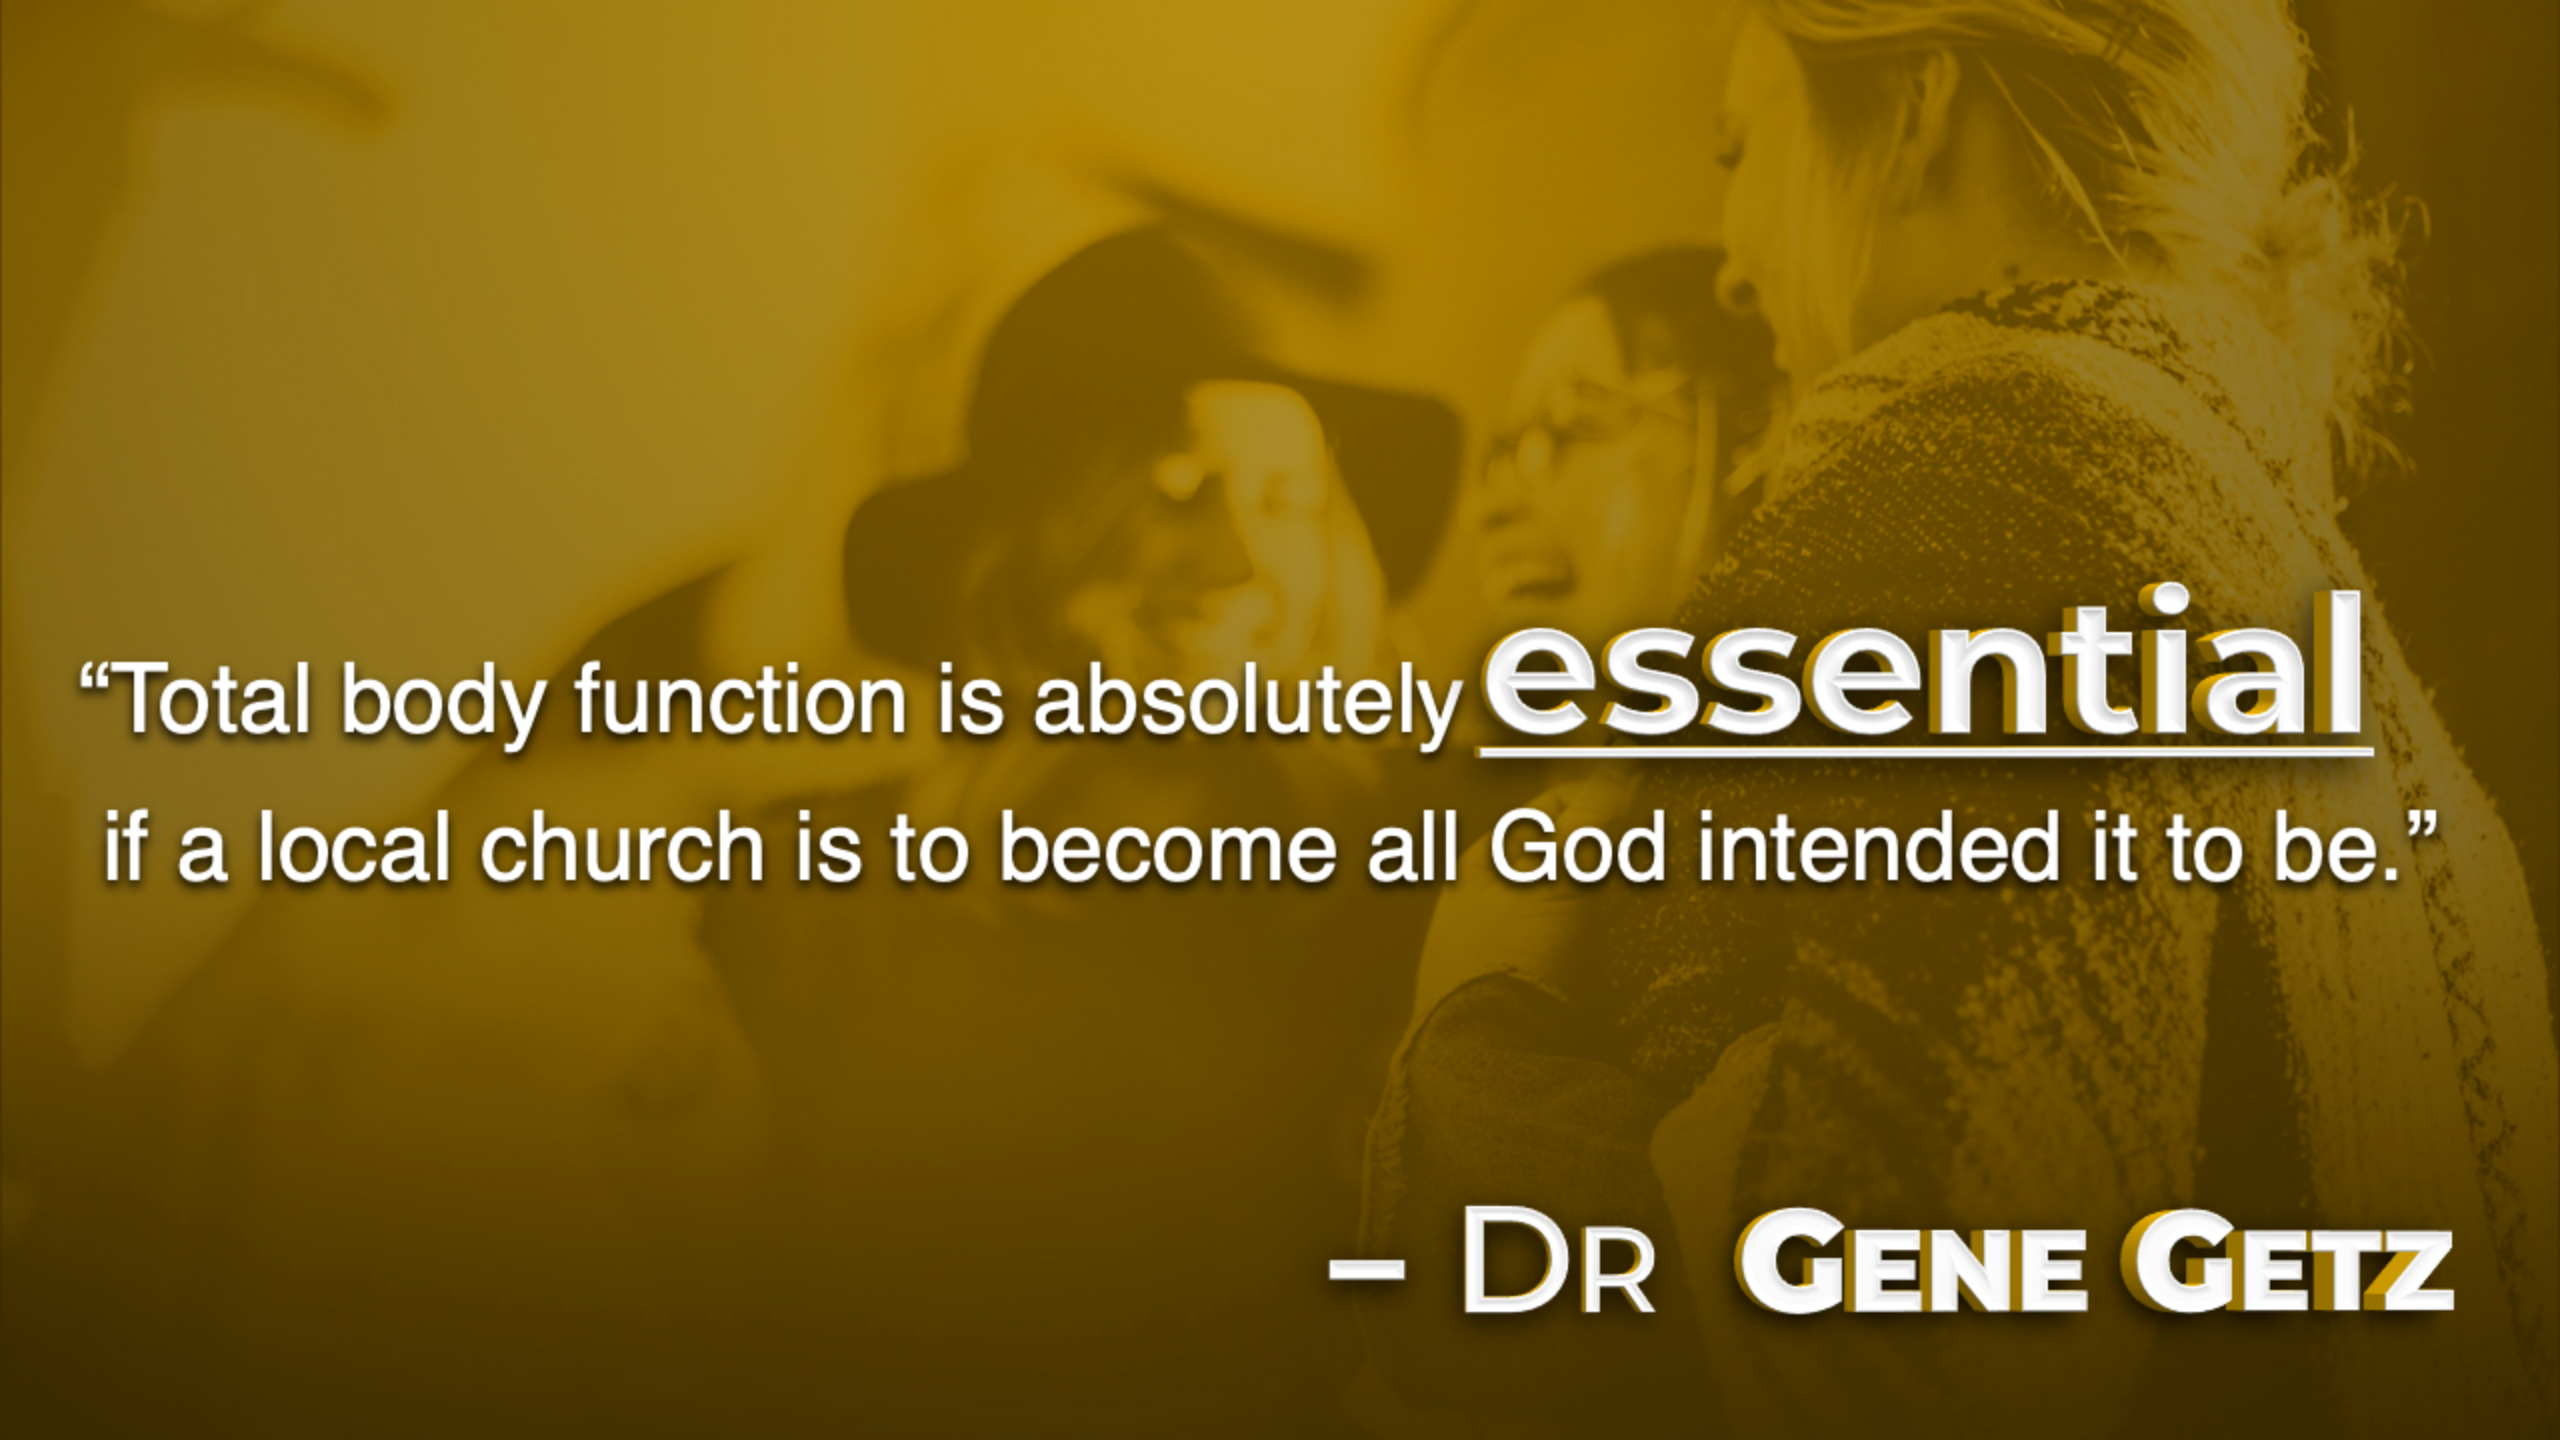

A group of people, including a woman in the foreground, are shown in a church setting. The image is overlaid with a semi-transparent yellow filter. A large, faint question mark is visible in the background. The text is overlaid on the left side of the image.

What does God expect from all believers in regards to relationships?

<sup>15</sup> Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, <sup>16</sup> from whom the whole body, joined and held together by every joint with which it is equipped, when each part is working properly, makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love.

EPHESIANS 4:15-16 ESV

A group of people in a church setting, with a woman in the foreground looking upwards. The image is overlaid with a semi-transparent yellow filter.

“Total body function is absolutely essential if a local church is to become all God intended it to be.”

— DR GENE GETZ

Paul uses the word allelon (one another) nearly 40 times to teach Christians how to live regarding their mutual responsibilities to their fellow believers.

The choice we all have to make in regards to all our relationships.

<sup>17</sup> For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to keep you from doing the things you want to do.

GALATIANS 5:17 ESV

<sup>19</sup> When you follow the desires of your sinful nature, the results are very clear: sexual immorality, impurity, lustful pleasures, <sup>20</sup> idolatry, sorcery, hostility, quarreling, jealousy, outbursts of anger,

GALATIANS 5:19-21 NLT

selfish ambition, dissension, division, <sup>21</sup> envy, drunkenness, wild parties, and other sins like these. Let me tell you again, as I have before, that anyone living that sort of life will not inherit the Kingdom of God.

GALATIANS 5:19-21 NLT

<sup>22</sup> But the Holy Spirit produces this kind of fruit in our lives: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, <sup>23</sup> gentleness, and self-control.

GALATIANS 5:22-23A NLT

A group of people, including a man in a dark suit and a woman in a light-colored top, are visible in the background. The entire image has a warm, yellowish-gold color cast. The text is centered and reads: "Will we follow the 'sinful' nature" in our relationships with "one another"?. The word "sinful" is underlined and has a slight shadow effect.

Will we follow the “sinful nature” in
our relationships with “one another”?

Will we follow the “sinful nature” in
our relationships with “one another”?

OR

Will we “live by the spirit” in our relationships with “one another”?
